

Teach me
Your ways,
O Lord...

As members of the body of Christ, God chooses all of us to be bearers of his word and we must always be ready to respond to Isaiah, but we are invited to reflect his glory and witness in a less conspicuous way in the ordinariness of life. Whereas Peter was summoned to leave his nets and launch out into the deep, our call to personal holiness is more likely to come as we wash dishes, help children with their homework, nurse a sick neighbour or look after an elderly parent. What is important is that we respond willingly. However, unworthy we may consider ourselves, once we realise our need for a redeemer, the forgiveness of God is always there for the asking.

From the Pastor's Desk

Time fly's by and it is already almost four years since I arrived at St. Luke's Parish.

It is a very special place with many ministries and groups and wonderful talented choirs. Many come here because it is so special and this is thanks to all of you and most of all to our Lord.

We have made it a habit of not talking about finances unless we have to and at this time, we must.

We have a Parish Council that meets to keep track of Parish funds and a trend over the last many years is the weekly collections, our main source of revenue, stays about the same, but as everywhere, expenses do not. We try but inflation happens.

We are at a point now where we need to raise about 25% more in all offerings to keep up. This can be done if we all try to raise our donations just a bit from what we give presently. If we do, we can keep the programs and staffing we have, and respond to the maintenance needs of the property. As always, donations are tax deductible.

If you have questions, please contact the Parish office, the Finance Council members or me. If you have never formally donated to St. Luke's, please consider us if you can. With just a bit of attention we can solve this situation and not have to speak of it again.

Thanks for all you do.
God Bless
Fr. Mark Van Patten
