Alleluia!! Christ is risen!! At Easter we celebrate Jesus' victory over death and our hope of eternal life. It is the height of our religious experience. "Lord Jesus Christ, you have triumphed over the grave and you have won for us new life. Give me the eyes of faith to see you in your glory. Help me to draw near to you and to grow in the knowledge of your great love for us and your great victory over sin and death."

The Resurrection Transformed Our World

If the Easter event occurred in our own day, how would the news be transmitted? We can imagine media blitzes, live interviews, and endless analysis. We would probably tire of the story, and it would soon be supplanted by something more exciting. Media can give us immediacy and a lot of "facts" but it often lacks sincerity, passion and the authenticity of one human heart speaking to another.

The story that the apostles related was as unbelievable and outrageous then as it is today for many people, and yet they succeeded. The message was short and spare – Jesus was a Spirit-filled man who was the fulfillment of ancient promises. He was anointed with power and went about doing good and healing the afflicted. Jesus' real concern was the forgiveness of sins to all who would accept Him.

How were the apostles so successful in proclaiming their message? The apostles had to relay the wonderful news of Easter by word of mouth. Their proclamation was public and they were exposed to danger in the process. It was necessary to convince skeptical people by looking them straight in the eye and speaking from the heart and soul.

The earlier bearers of the word had to live out the message they were proclaiming and also had to suffer for it. These handicaps were actually strengths as it was because of this weakness that the apostles had to rely completely on God and the power of the Spirit. This is part of the simplicity, austerity and spiritual dedication that Pope Francis has called throughout his pontificate.

The resurrection accounts were not meant to convey information but hope, joy and vision of a transformed future. The empty tomb accounts were dismissed by some people at the time as meaningless. Even the two disciples who entered the tomb did not fully comprehend what had occurred. It fell to Mary Magdalene, left alone and weeping at the tomb, to carry the shattering news to the others.

Jesus was ascending not only to his God and Father but ours too. No longer would there be separation between humans and God and hopefully no longer people. Her message as she related the story to the apostles was: "I have seen the Lord!" The intensity of that experience transformed her forever--to encounter the Risen Lord, is to never be the same again.

Christian proclamation of the Resurrection is often rather anemic, failing to convince by demeanor, attitude and way of life. Our encounter with the Lord should be written on our faces and all of our actions. Let our proclamation be face-to-face and heart-to-heart as with the apostles.

Living the Gospel by evangelizing our faith in the greater world

Gia Lao Parish resides in the mountainous Diocese of Xuan Loc in Vietnam. Its parishioners, mostly poor, work on the hillside farms. The Pastoral Mission Fund, with the support of ShareLife, provided a one-time grant so the parish could acquire resources it could not otherwise provide. This includes bibles and hymnals, along with training for 60 catechists, who lead marriage preparation and catechism classes. With your support, Gia Lao Church is bringing faith to a community in the greater world.

April 22 is the next ShareLife Sunday.
