Moving out of Parish

On a least four occasions during the Last Supper, Christ said to his apostles, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” We need no reminding that these words of Jesus are addressed to Christians of all times including ourselves. The commandments we are called to keep as an expression of our love for him are not the Ten Commandments but the command to love and imitate him in every aspect of our lives. All genuine love comes from God and God is to be found in every encounter where there is real love. This love is something that cannot be bought. The supreme example of God’s love was sending his only Son into the world to assure us that we are saved. The only condition required for receiving this gift is the undertaking to share it with others. When life is over, we will be judged upon how much we have loved. What will count is how we cared for our family, the old, the poor, the handicapped and the marginalized. In this way, Christ’s command to love takes hold and spreads within the community.

Please pray for the sick in our community.
 May the sick and the suffering in our community come to know that God the Father cares for them and that they are precious in his eyes.

Let us pray

Good and gracious God, creator of all good things in the universe, your Son, Jesus Christ, loved his Mother and modeled for us how we should love our mothers. Bless all women in our lives who model for us the love of a mother.

Protect them and encourage them to love as you have loved us.

Bless and protect those men in families who have no female partners and give them courage and strength to love their children in the absence of a mother.

We ask this in your name. Amen

SHARELIFE CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

Our 2026 parish goal - $155,000

Raised to date – $74,444.10

Through ShareLife, you are the light in someone's darkest moment

Sarah arrive at the doors of one of the Catholic Family Services agencies you support through ShareLife on a desperate afternoon with her baby cradled tightly against her chest. Fleeing an abusive home, she had nothing but the clothes on her back and a fragile hope that someone might help. Your kindness provided the essentials to care for her baby, the counselling to begin healing, and the support to rebuild their lives. Now she and her baby are safe, cared for, and starting to look toward a brighter future.

You can donate at the parish using a ShareLife envelope located in the pew pockets or on the information table or online through our parish website or at sharelife.org/donate.

Thank you for living the gospel!

Lay Carmelites (TOCarm)

“Carmel is a source of wealth for the whole Christian community.”

– Pope John Paul II

Are you seeking a deeper life of prayer?

Lay Carmelites are Catholic men and women called to grow closer to Christ through prayer, community, and service, following the spirit of Elijah and Mary.

We live this vocation in the midst of everyday life—family, work, and parish.

Begin with a simple conversation to explore whether this path may be right for you.
